

Her Sports
Women's Gear Guide
"Swim"

Her Sports magazine featured Girls4Sport's halter rashguard and hipster bottoms in the swim review of the Summer 2008 Women's Gear Guide issue.

swim

1

2

3

4

5

HERLAMPY SPORTS HALTER RASHGUARD, $44, AND HIPSTER BOTTOMS, $34 For a stylish, but slightly more modest suit, the Girls4Sport Halter and Hipster Bottom are the way to go. The top lies flat at the neck so you can choose how loose or tight it fits, and the retro-style bottom sits snug on the hip for a slimming fit. XS-XL. girls4sport.com

3 SPLISH THIN STRAP SUIT, $50
Make a statement by designing your own suit—including text—at splishcustom.com. But don't let the zany designs fool you: These suits are fully lined and well-constructed, with an upper-back strap that gives extra support often missing in a one-piece. 22-36. splish.com

4 SUGOI BELLA SWIM SUIT, $60
Step into this suit, and you'll feel like an athlete. The form-fitting design makes anyone look a little leaner. And the thin straps on the Bella sit high on the shoulders, so they stay secure during your swim. 26-40. sugoi.com

5 SPEEDO VANQUISHER DOUBLE STRAP ENDURANCE+, $76 Ideal for training, the Vanquisher provides significant coverage and support with a full bottom and modest back. Its fabric resists fading and stretching, so this suit will hold up lap after lap. 6-18. speedousa.com

swim by tiffany connors

34 Her Sports + Fitness

hersports.com