

Not just another pretty face, Girls4Sport products are great-looking and hard-working. Ever present where there is a commitment to health and fun, Girls4Sport offers dazzling prints, fun colors and, just as important, sun protection. Featured in the June 2009 issue of O Magazine, Girls4Sport specializes in high-end, high-quality, attractive, yet durable waterwear as well as sun protective options for toddlers and youth.

Girls4Sport products are available in over 250 retail outlets worldwide and online at shop.girls4sport.com.

We protect and flatter your "assets" by creating performance clothing focused solely on the female body for girls of every age. Girls4Sport's line includes rashguard sets designed for women by women with super comfy SPF 65-rated fabrics, built-in shelf bras, out of the ordinary prints, and flattering fits.
